

ELECTRONICS ITEMS ACCEPTED AT THE RESIDENTIAL COLLECTION EVENT (for participating communities*) on Saturday, May 20, 2017

Residents may bring the following electronic items (working & non-working) to the Residential Electronics Collection.

Items from commercial businesses will not be accepted.

2 TV limit per postcard, with a 10-item total limit.

Electronics:

- Televisions (ALL sizes, types, & models of TV's accepted)
- DVD/VHS players, radios, stereo equipment, remote controls
- MP3 players, iPods, e-readers, projectors
- Hand-held gaming devices, video game consoles, digital cameras, camcorders
- Cable & satellite receivers

Computer Components:

- Computers & servers, laptops, tablets, printers, copiers, monitors
- Keyboards, speakers, mice, cables, wires, external drives, UPS
- Computer parts including but not limited to: circuit boards, hard drives, optical drives, power supplies, ribbon cables, RAM
- Networking equipment, hubs, switches, routers, cables, modems, scanners
- Ink & toner cartridges

Communication Devices & Other Office Electronics:

- Cash registers, credit card readers, typewriters, adding machines, calculators
- Cell phones & accessories, telephones, telecom equipment, chargers

Other items:

- Microwaves
- Christmas lights
- Rechargeable batteries: Lithium Ion, Ni-Cd, Lead Acid, Ni-Mh

NOT ACCEPTED: loose alkaline (single-use) batteries, liquid containing items, Freon-containing items (AC units, dehumidifiers), white goods (refrigerators, freezers), thermostats, light bulbs

Participating communities include: Bondville, Broadlands, Champaign, Gifford, Homer, Ivesdale, Ludlow, Mahomet, Ogden, Royal, Sadorus, Savoy, St. Joseph, Thomasboro, Urbana, & Unincorporated County

Questions? City of Champaign: 217.403.4780; City of Urbana: 217.384.2302; Champaign County: 217.819.4035