

Champaign City Government 101 Academy

Learn about the inner workings of Champaign’s municipal government and the various departments that work collaboratively to serve the public. Increase your civic IQ through these educational seminars by learning about topics such as public safety, infrastructure maintenance, neighborhood programs, development, and more. At the end of the academy, you’ll know the ins and outs of local government and ways to get involved to improve your community. The academy is FREE and consists of 11 sessions from September through November held at various city facilities. In order to participate:

- You must be at least 16 years of age
- You must register for the entire academy schedule

Mondays & Thursdays at 6pm, at various city facilities
