Good Neighbor

Narrative

Elizabeth Mulvaney was volunteering at Champaign Church of the Brethren in our food pantry when New Covenant Fellowship and Champaign Church of he Brethren decided to partner in providing a "Pop Up Pantry" to the residents of Washington Square. Shortly into this project Elizabeth volunteered to "get things ready". This is how she became the volunteer manager of the monthly event. It is a responsibility that she has taken seriously . She organized a group of volunteers at Washington Square, makes task assignments, posts flyers to notify residents, takes care of arranging displays and does what ever she can to assure that we complete our program in a timely and thorough manner. In November of 2015 when Champaign Church of the Brethren partnered with Stone Creek Church and the Office of Volunteers at the U of I to provide an early Thanksgiving Dinner for residents at Washington Square. Elizabeth organized volunteers, managed the sign up sheet and delegated preparation task. Almost 100 residents enjoyed a lovely dinner as a result of her willingness to pitch in doing what ever she could, be it serving in the dinning room or making sure that shut ins were taken care of. She is truly a good neighbor.
